

Our next Club meeting is Thursday 25/10/12

October meeting

This month we welcome back Debra Buckles. Visitors are always welcome, particularly this month if you know anyone interested in flower arranging.

September meeting

Last month – Cicley demonstrated Spicy Chicken, Sweet Potato Fritters and Roasted Vegetables and as she had catered for approx 30 members and we had an attendance of 19 there was an abundance of food. Those members who did not attend missed out on very tasty evening. The smell coming from the kitchen was mouth watering and the food was fantastic. Thank you, Cicley for a very interesting evening and full tummies.

Christmas Cake Competition

Colchester Sugarcraft has run this competition for many years and supported various charities, but we discovered that some were using our donated cakes for raffle prizes so for the moment we donate to The Women's Refuge and The Salvation Army who use them "in house" and they are much appreciated. If you do not want to donate a cake, please enter the competition and take your cake home afterwards (you may have a different charity that you wish to support).

We suggest a minimum of 6" and decorated in any style you fancy. There are 3 classes NOVICE, INTERMEDIATE and ADVANCE. If this is your first time entering the competition, then please enter the Novice Class.

New discovery

Anne has just discovered a Sugarcraft and Wedding Store, called Carousel, in the Butter Market Centre, Ipswich. Apparently it has been there for 3 years!! It sells a wide range of products and party items as well as sugarcraft equipment.

Hints & Tips

The subject of edible glitter has been in the news again. An investigation found that some were unfit for human consumption – many were made of inedible polyester plastic of they type used to make drink bottles, and in one case the glitter was made of finely powdered brass. Non-toxic does not mean it is safe to eat

At the last meeting, a member asked Anne for the instructions on how to do Glenda's Open Rose but she can't remember who asked her so please contact her again.
