

Our next Club meeting is Thursday 25th April 2013

April Meeting

This month is the Annual General Meeting. Please bring your copy of the Agenda with you.

Subscriptions are due, either cash or cheques (made payable to Colchester Sugarcraft Association), in a named envelope, and handed in at registration. Don't forget the monthly fee has increased to £2.

After a short a short business meeting, Anne will demonstrate how to make a Camellia.

March Meeting

We saw a demonstration on Gateaux with Peter Ward. They looked and tasted lovely.

Thanks to everyone who entered the Brownie competition. Congratulations to the winner Wendy Myhill and her recipe is reproduced here for your information.

Committee Members

We are looking for more members to join the Committee and help with new ideas for the club. We hold 3-4 meetings a year. We are also looking for an Assistant Chairperson to help Anne with running of the club. If you would like to join then please give your name to Anne before the meeting. It is not hard or as scary as you think.

Library

There are still two books outstanding from the Library.

Patchwork Cutters book 4 by Marion Frost.

No Time Party Cakes by Carol Deacon.

If any member has any of these books, could they please return to the club. Thank you.

Almond Art Clacton

Almond Art are still offering a 10% discount for our members. It is also available on line. You will need to register at www.almondart.com prior to your first online order. They are also doing a loyalty scheme so every time you shop on their website you will earn a discount off your next online order. The site is regularly updated with new products and special offers. You will need to show your members programme when you go to the store.

We have been offered a 10% discount at a shop in Maldon. I have not heard back from them yet, but when i do, i will let the members know the details in the next newsletter.

Show & Tell Table

Please keep bringing in your pictures and/or products you have made to display on the table.
