FEBRUARY MEETING; despite the weather Dawn made it through. Dawn demonstrated an Ankle Boot. It was a very interesting and fun evening. Dawn's demonstration had the members glued to the television watching everything she did. Dawn was full of information and tips on how to make the boot. Here are a few websites she mentioned on where to purchase the formers and on the wholesale of paste and the small bags she was using. As members were interested Lorraine found details of the items Dawn was using;

BOOT FORMERS; www.cake-stuff.com £24.95 (without heel mould) but you can get the heel mould on Amazon or Ebay. www.cakedecorating.co.uk (via Ebay) £38.99 you get an11peice set which includes everything you need, including shoe cutters. Lorraine has been on a few other websites but are all sold out. Some sites are charging double the price off others so watch out when looking and ordering.

HOWARD; www.packaginglincs.co.uk for the plastic bags Dawn was using 5in grip seal bags. These are £9.65 ex vat for a 1000. You have to spend £99 EX. VAT FOR FREE P&P. OR £8 for the first 20kg then 25p per every additional kilo. They have all sorts of bags and boxes on the site. You can get these bags on Ebay and Amazon and can buy less than a 1000. Some start from 50 bags. You have to shop around to get a good price.

TOM ANDERSON; www.tomanderson-distributor.co.uk prices are not shown on website. You have to register to get a quote. You have to spend £150 EX VAT TO GET FREE DELIVERY OR £6 per box if your order requires more than one box it's then half P&P FOR ADDITIONAL BOXES.
